Biking - Tour 2

North of Ringsted - approx. 35 km

Follow Ringsted stream north from Havemøllevvej. You pass Torpet Mose. The square lakes are peatlands from the time around World War II.

Further forward - on your left side - you will pass Svenstrup manor. The mail building was built in 1897.

On Holbækvej, follow the ramp to the main road.

Continue left towards Holbæk on the bike path. You pass the 'Blue Flag' beach - Haraldsted lake - on your right.

On Haraldsted Sandvej turn right. This road was part of the medieval road from Roskilde through Ringsted towards Antvorskov and Korsør.

In Haraldsted you will pass Haraldsted church on your left.

The semicircular Riding Arena

Continue straight through Vrangeskov (forest) towards Valsømagle. At the T-junction continue to the right on Valsømaglevej.

At Ørvadgård (farm) please park your bike at the roadside and follow the country lane to the lake, on your feet. 200 meters west you will find some ruins of the old manor house, Valsøgård, later Nygård. It burned down in 1535.

Back on your bike, continue through Valsømagle towards Valsølille on Valsømaglevej. Valsølille church passes.

At Valsølille gård (farm) turn right. It used to be an old manor seat from the 1300s.

On the way to Skjoldenæsholm and the Tram Museum you will find a small path on your right, which leads you to an old ruin - Skjoldenæs - by Valsølille lake.

Continue to the goods Skjoldenæsholm.

The current mail building is built in classical neoclassicism in 1766.

In the forest you will find Sealand's second highest point, Gyldenløveshøj, 126 meters.

From the Tram Museum continue south and turn left towards Jystrup.

At Ålbækvej turn right. Continue on Høedvej.

At Møllebjergvej turn right towards Valsømagle.

Turn left on Valsømaglevej and continue towards Hovedvej 14.

Take the road to your right to Ringsted and go back to the town.
